INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors of Developments in Literacy, Inc.

I have audited the accompanying financial statements of Developments in Literacy, Inc. (a nonprofit organization) which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2014, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit. I conducted my audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, I express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion.

Opinion

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Developments in Literacy, Inc. as of December 31, 2014, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Organization

Developments in Literacy, Inc. (“the Organization”) was founded in February 1997 as a California nonprofit public benefit corporation. The purpose of the Organization is to promote literacy and provide education to underprivileged children in Pakistan. The Organization’s support comes entirely from donor contributions.

Basis of Presentation

The Organization follows the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (“SFAS”) No. 117, Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Organizations. Under SFAS No. 117, the Organization reports amounts in the accompanying financial statements for each of three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets and permanently restricted net assets.

Unrestricted Net Assets – Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions. Unrestricted net assets generally result from unrestricted contributions and interest and dividends, less expenses incurred in providing services and fundraising and other administrative expenses.

Temporarily Restricted Net Assets – Net assets that are subject to donor-imposed restrictions that require the passage of time or the occurrence of a specific event to become available for unrestricted use.

Permanently Restricted Net Assets – Net assets are subject to donor-imposed restrictions that may be maintained permanently while permitting the Organization to use or expense part or all of the income derived from the donated assets.

The Organization also follows the provisions of SFAS No. 116, Accounting for Contributions Received and Contributions Made. Under SFAS No. 116, the Organization records gifts of cash and other assets as temporarily restricted net assets if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor restriction expires, a stipulated time restriction ends or a purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from donor restrictions. Donor-restricted contributions, whose restrictions are met within the fiscal year, are reported as unrestricted revenues, gains and other support.

Use of Estimates and Assumptions

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Organization have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include all monies in banks and highly liquid investments with maturity dates of less than three months.

Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of ten years for furniture and equipment and five years for computers. Promises to Give

Unconditional promises to give (i.e. contributions) are recognized as revenues or gains in the period received and as assets, decreases of liabilities, or expenses depending on the form of the benefits received. Conditional promises to give (i.e. contributions) are recognized when the conditions on which they depend are substantially met.
